On Wednesday, July 12 under the direct supervision of Inspector Brian McCarthy, police of the 114th Precinct executed the 18th search warrant of 2006 at 18-41 21st Rd. On July 11 two perpetrators had been apprehended for possession of marijuana and a knife. In addition, a cellphone video showed one of the perpetrators with a handgun. This, in conjunction with admissions by the defendants, enabled the 114th Precinct to get a search warrant issued by the courts for the location. Evidence confiscated included a firearms silencer, a taser/stun gun, marijuana, packaging material, a scale, graffiti paraphernalia and currency.

On Thursday July 13, at approximately 8:30 p.m., again under McCarthy's supervision, 32-14 Steinway St. was the subject of a search warrant by the 114th Precinct and the Police Department Legal Bureau. Illegally reproduced goods were seized and an arrest made. The courts issued an order to close the site.
