

The Sands of Time at Morisco Funeral Home

Lobby—Today

Founded in 1906, Morisco Funeral Home has been serving the community in the traditional family setting. Today, newly refurbished, the elegance and grace of days gone by radiate a comforting glow in this friendly, warm environment. Yet, with each day the history of the past 102 years is more deeply entrenched in the foundation of this historic establishment. Linking the past with the present, Morisco is the bridge of the generations who have been a part of this community. We recently discovered a brochure from 1942 which said, "In days gone by the general public were more reluctant to face the realities of life. The present day generation has a more sensible viewpoint in this. They are not afraid to face up to life's responsibilities, realizing that knowledge does not make the Sands of Time run faster, but that it does aid practical people to make sensible plans. Our establishment is open for inspection at all times. A visit will convince you that we are equipped to render a service to meet the needs of all. Our chapels are tastefully decorated and are a fitting tribute to the memory of a loved one. Our services are non-sectarian and our wide experience enables us to conform to the customs of the church or organization of your choice."

As it was in 1906, this thought still holds today. Our doors are open to all. Visit us any time and feel secure in the knowledge of our over 102 year old history.

At present, it still sits in a strong, vibrant, domestic and commercial community. Its appearance is somewhat different yet traditional since assuming changes both inside and out. Its exterior reflects a brownstone flavor and its interior is a bright yet comforting turn of the century decor that has evoked pleasant comments by all who have visited their friends and family members. As part of the welcoming committee is the portrait of its founder, Mr. Nicola Morisco.

Inquire about the various aspects of our services. All funerals are arranged and supervised by the owners. We are available for pre-need counseling and our convenient location helps to bring people together from throughout the metropolitan area. We are near the subway, buses, the Triborough and Queensboro Bridges as well as the Midtown Tunnel and the Grand Central Parkway.
