Politics... From page 26

Once his legislation is filed, Weiner said he plans to call National Park Service officials to a committee hearing and have them explain why they have repeatedly refused to open the statue's crown.

NEW WOES FOR HEVESI? A report earlier this week indicated that investigations of possible conflicts of interest in the state comptroller's office during Alan Hevesi's tenure could draw criminal charges.

Others who may be caught up in the findings, a Daily News story said, were Hevesi's Forest Hills confidante, Jack Chartier, and his long-time political associate and consultant Hank Morris.

Chartier, whose political association with Hevesi dates back about 20 years, had previously come under fire for allegedly providing actress Peggy Lipton with chauffeur service by a state employee, similar to the charges which ended Hevesi's career in public service.

The present probes of the comptroller's office under Hevesi are being conducted by state Attorney General Andrew Cuomo and Albany District Attorney David Soares, who spearheaded the Hevesi investigation.

MAYERSOHN'S RAPE/HIV BILL PASSES: A bill which allows a rape victim to receive an HIV test of her alleged assailant after he is indicted, sponsored by Assemblymember Nettie Mayersohn (D-Flushing), has passed both houses of the legislature and is now being considered by Governor Eliot Spitzer.

The governor has been supportive of the measure and is expected to sign it into law. The bill permits a judge to order an HIV test of an accused rapist within 48 hours of an indictment. Mayersohn said this is particularly urgent when the person requesting the testing could have been exposed to blood or bodily fluids of the defendant during the rape.

MONSERRATE APPLAUDS DHS ACTION: Action by the federal Department of Homeland Security (DHS) granting legal residency to Yardelin Hiraldo, wife of a soldier missing in action, was applauded by Councilmember Hiram Monserrate (D-Corona).

Monserrate, in whose district MIA serviceman Army Specialist Alex Jimenez-Duran resides, stated, "On behalf of our entire community I want to thank the [Department] of Homeland Security for their diligence and compassion in resolving this matter. They have brought some measure of relief for the Jimenez-Duran family. Now, as opposed to worrying about deportation proceedings against Alex's wife, the family can focus on their ongoing prayer vigil for his safe return."
